

Community Recreational Initiatives Society (CRIS) is searching for an amazing, talented, tech savvy people person to fill our Program Coordinator role within our Urban Adaptive Adventures division. CRIS gets people outdoors to enjoy outdoor sport and we are the experts in adaptive integration to the outdoors. We serve the communities of Vernon, Lake Country, Kelowna and West Kelowna. Our main office is in Kelowna's bustling and trendy North-end.

If your ambition in life is to be organized, help people, be creative and have fun we want to talk to you. Our Program Coordinator is an integral member of our administrative team running the day to day of our various urban programs, supervising our summer team and our amazing program volunteers, training for safety and process and ensuring our participants have options for enjoying the outdoors. Yes, we specialize in adaptations to ensure people with physical and cognitive challenges can enjoy hiking, cycling, kayaking, paddling, Nordic skiing and snowshoeing BUT we pride ourselves on removing barriers and levelling the field for everyone.

Your mission, should you choose to accept it is to help us build on what we have done so far and use your experience (2+ years) in program or activity delivery as part of a team, lean on your love of the outdoors, access your love/hate relationship with technology to streamline things, approach everything with an eye for continuous improvement and apply your ability to create great relationships within our fun loving, energetic, compassionate blue-jean culture.

We won't fuss which faculty your degree is from provided you are people centric, believe in working hard, have experience with grant writing and don't mind answering the phone and being the last one to turn out the lights at times. We are passionate about the outdoors being for everyone at any age and our almost 20 years of breaking down barriers in urban and wilderness settings speaks to our commitment to our community's health.

CRIS is an equal opportunity employer. We highly encourage persons with these credentials and living with disability to apply, our Adaptive Adventures office space has been modified for low barrier accessibility.

Thank you to everyone who applies, we truly appreciate your interest. We will do our best to get back to you. Deadline for your cover letter and resume is Thursday, March 5, 2020 by the end of business day. Please apply to shelleybg@adaptiveadventures.ca. No phone calls please.

#getoutdoors. #adaptiveadventures. #everyoneoutside. #barrierfree

The Outdoors Is For Everyone
The Experts in Adaptive Outdoor Experiences